

Sherry's Antiques - Information
Pack 2015

We have been trading since 1970
and source stock both internationally and domestically

Sherry's Antiques is one of Cape Town's oldest and well-established antique furniture showrooms and restoration workshops. Stocked full of unique items sourced both domestically and internationally. Furniture ranges from large mahogany boardroom tables to original ship lighting. There is bound to be something to satisfy the most seasoned collector or interior designer alike.

Sherry's was started over 45 years ago and is owned and run by Glen Sherwell. The company prides themselves on their ability to provide expert advice on valuations as well as having an abundant knowledge across restoration and upholstery work.

Sherry's not only sources and imports antiques and other interior items, but also has a team of onsite craftsmen and artisans that are skilled in full antique restoration.

Ranging from French polishing, leather inlays, veneering, resurfacing, along with a full upholstery service.

We love old furniture and have an eclectic mix of stock, including:

- Tables
- Desks
- Assorted chairs
- Interior lighting
- Bookcases & display units
- Military chests

Visit our website to view our catalogue and examples of current stock.

We can also fabricate a number of interior items - Headboards, couches & ottomans.
Just send us in a photo reference.

Sherry's has the ability to provide onsite restoration work. Example above of newly installed cupboards, which have been French polished with brass inlay.
